PETITIONING THE COURT

- [] To extend the term of supervision for years, for a total term of years.
[X] To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

Restitution in the amount of $6,589.19 is due immediately and shall be paid in installments at the rate of $50 per month until paid in full. It is recommended that the interest be waived pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3).

CAUSE

Mrs. Beck was released from custody in June 2019 due to her breast cancer diagnosis. Mrs. Beck released to Mt. Airy, NC where she resides with her daughter, son-in-law, and granddaughter. Immediately upon release, Mrs. Beck was able to receive oncology care at a Wake Forest Baptist Health Center in Elkin, NC. Mrs. Beck is happy to report that she is now in remission.

When Mrs. Beck was released, she immediately applied for disability, which was denied. Mrs. Beck has been working with her case manager and is in the process of reapplying. She continues to struggle to pay for medical treatment costs. Despite Mrs. Beck's medical concerns, she was very motivated to find employment. In January, Ms. Beck gained employment at Wayne's Farm. She is working second shift as a line agent and is making $12.25 per hour.

Based on a financial investigation conducted by our office, it appears that Mrs. Beck is unable to afford the Court ordered monthly payments of $100 at this time. After discussions with Mrs. Beck, it is suggested that her monthly payments be reduced to $50 per month. Should her economic circumstances drastically change, the Court will be notified, and payments may be increased at that time.

Respectfully submitted,

Caila L. Gullette
U.S. Probation Officer
